

Pat's Backpack

Cycle 13 Decodable
Student Reader

Pat has a red backpack. She got it from Granddad.

She will not go out
unless she has it.

She puts so much stuff in it. She cannot zip it up!

"Can I help you zip it?"
I ask. She says,
"No! I do it!"

It still will not zip. She lifts out her blanket.

"Can I help you zip it now?" I ask.

She says, "No! I do it!"

She lifts out her magnets.

"Now can I help you zip
it up?" I ask.

"Yes." she says.

I zip it up a bit.
I let Pat zip the rest.

"I did it!" Pat says.
