Instructions: Read the passage.

What's in your suitcase?

Andrew, Sue, and Lou are taking a trip to the moon in a hot air balloon on Tuesday afternoon. Before they leave, each youth must choose a suitcase. They argue for a few minutes, but soon they all get the one they want. Every suitcase is different. Lou's is old and blue, Andrew's is shiny and new, and Sue's is soft and kind of droopy. But they all have some truly silly things inside.

Andrew says, "I have a broom, some fruit, a new suit, some toothpaste, and some glue."

Lou says, "My things are really silly too. It's true! I have tools, boots, shampoo, some food, a spoon, a bowl of soup, some chewing gum, a spool of thread, and an old sweater I outgrew."

Sue smiles and says, "I think my things are super silly too! I have a scooter, a cartoon animal named Snoopy, a rooster that I rescued from the zoo, and a hula hoop!"

Soon it's noon and time to go. They scoop up their suitcases, run up to the roof, jump in the balloon and off they zoom!
