Additional Language and Literacy Block

The Additional Language and Literacy (ALL) Block is 1 hour of instruction per day. It is designed to work in concert with and in addition to the 1-hour Grades 3–5 ELA “module lessons.” Taken together, these 2 hours of instruction comprehensively address all the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts. The ALL Block is divided into five components: Additional Work with Complex Text; Reading and Speaking Fluency/GUM (Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics); Writing Practice; Word Study and Vocabulary; and Independent Reading.

The ALL Block for each unit contains the following:

- Unit Overview outlining the instruction and activities that will take place in each component of the Additional Language and Literacy time in a given unit. It also contains suggested grouping for each component.
- Sample Calendar suggesting when to begin an ALL Block unit and when to take flex days to support alignment between the ALL Block and the module lessons.
- Teacher and student materials for each component, organized in the order they will be used, including:
 - Teacher Guides: Each guide contains two 20-minute blocks of teacher-guided instruction for a component, differentiated for different levels, including English language learners (ELLs).
 - Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards: Students complete these activity cards with teacher support during the 20-minute teacher-guided instruction. Cards are differentiated.
 - Student Task Cards: Each task card contains two days of tasks for a component. Students complete these task cards independently. Task cards are not differentiated, to enable students to provide peer support and coaching.
 - Additional Printed Materials: These may include game pieces or texts students will need either during teacher-guided instruction or when working independently.

Key for ALL materials (for teacher reference only; students do not need to know what these symbols mean):

- = Below grade level
- = On grade level
- ◆ = Above grade level
- ▲ = English language learners

ALL 5M3 UNIT 1 OVERVIEW

Reading and Speaking Fluency/GUM
RF.5.4

- Students are allocated a fluency passage for the week from Promises to Keep. They self-assess their fluency, set goals, and practice reading the passage, including using appropriate tone and noticing and reading punctuation correctly.
- ELLs complete the same activities as other students with an additional Mini Language Dive.
- Suggested student grouping for teacher-guided instruction: group 1 ●▲, group 2 ■, group 3 ◆ (Using professional judgment, form groups based on student needs and logistical constraints—e.g., number of students at each level.)

Additional Work with Complex Text
RI.5.1, RI.5.4, RI.5.10,
L.5.1, L.5.1a, L.5.4b,
L.5.6

- Students closely study the timeline at the bottom of pages 8–9 in Promises to Keep. They define key terms from the timeline and build background on the struggle for equality in U.S. history. All students participate in a Language Dive on Day 4.
- ELLs complete the same activities as other students.
- Suggested student grouping for teacher-guided instruction: group 1 ●▲, group 2 ■, group 3 ◆ (Using professional judgment, form groups based on student needs and logistical constraints—e.g., number of students at each level.)

Independent Reading
RL.5.2, RL.5.10, RI.5.2,
RI.5.10, SL.5.1

- Students read both research texts (on topics related to athletes as leaders of social change) and free choice texts (on any topic of their interest). They log their reading and respond to reading prompts in independent reading journals, and share their learning from reading in a group discussion.
- ELLs complete the same activities as other students.

Writing Practice
RI.5.3, W.5.2

- Students write an informative paragraph on one of the factors for Jackie Robinson's success.
- ELLs complete the same activities as other students.
- Suggested student grouping for teacher-guided instruction: group 1 ▲, group 2 ■, group 3 ●◆ (Using professional judgment, form groups based on student needs and logistical constraints—e.g., number of students at each level.)

Word Study and Vocabulary
RF.5.3a, L.5.4b, L.5.6

- Students analyze two academic vocabulary words (unacceptable and resentment) and their affixes (using Vocabulary Trees).
- ELLs complete the same activities as other students with additional Mini Language Dives.
- Suggested grouping: group 1 ▲, group 2 ■, group 3 ●◆ (Using professional judgment, form groups based on student needs and logistical constraints—e.g., number of students at each level.)

Reading and Speaking Fluency/GUM

Unit 1, Week 1: Teacher Guide

Daily Learning Targets

Day 1

- I can evaluate my own fluency strengths and set a fluency goal. (RF.5.4)

Day 3

- I can read punctuation to help me read a text aloud fluently. (RF.5.4)

Teaching Notes

- On Day 1, students are introduced to the passages they will practice reading fluently for the rest of the week. This sets up the students to work independently with the texts.
- On Day 3, students review how to read punctuation through teacher modeling. Students then apply this to improve their reading fluency of differentiated passages. Note: There is no Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card for Day 3. Students mark their fluency passage.
- Recall from the module lessons that although Mini Language Dive goals remain the same in Modules 3–4, the format has changed. The new format follows a Deconstruct, Reconstruct, and Practice routine and encourages teachers to be flexible and follow their students' lead. Refer to the Module 1 Appendix for additional information on Language Dives and for the Questions We Can Ask during a Language Dive anchor chart.
- Differentiation: Each group of students will read a different excerpt of text from Promises to Keep based on their fluency skills. To provide additional language support, lead students through the Mini Language Dives.
- In advance: Prepare materials for independent student groups.

Materials

Day 1

- ✓ Promises to Keep (from module Lesson 1; one per student)
- ✓ Sticky notes (two per student)
- ✓ Unit 1, Week 1, Day 1: Reading and Speaking Fluency/GUM: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card (one per student)
- ✓ Fluency Self-Assessment Checklist (from Module 1 ALL; one per student)
- ✓ Fluent Readers Do These Things anchor chart (begun in Module 1)
- ✓ Unit 1, Week 1: Reading and Speaking Fluency/GUM: Student Task Card (one to display)

Day 3

- ✓ Fluent Readers Do These Things anchor chart (begun in Module 1)
- ✓ Fluency passage (from Day 1: one per student)
- ✓ Unit 1, Week 1: Reading and Speaking Fluency/GUM: Student Task Card (one to display)

Instruction for Day 1

- Note: This sequence of instruction is very similar to Modules 1–2.
- Invite students to retrieve their copies of Promises to Keep and use the sticky notes to mark the fluency passage they will use to work on reading fluency.
 - Page 6: from the beginning of the introduction to the paragraph that ends with “reminded me that I deserved better.”
 - ▲ Pages 6–7: from the beginning of the introduction to the paragraph that ends with “All we had to do was pay attention to the way our parents lived....”
 - ◆ Pages 6–7: from the beginning of the introduction to the paragraph that ends with “So, yes, I knew my dad well as a father and as a man.”
- Invite students to preview the text by silently reading it independently. While students are engaged in this activity, respond to any concerns that may have arisen in groups working independently on other components.
- ▲: Mini Language Dive:
 - “Whether I was / learning to walk, / wildly swinging the bat at a fastball, / tackling one of my brothers during a football game, / or singing a show tune from West Side Story on the rock ledge of our fireplace, / Dad encouraged me with his praise and loving smile.”
 - Deconstruct: Invite students to discuss the meaning of the sentence and grapple with the meaning of each chunk. Encourage extended conversation and practice with the focus structure in the highlighted chunk, keeping the following language goals in mind:
 - whether: “Doing what?” / Meaning: The author uses the conjunction whether to introduce a series of alternative scenarios (in a long dependent clause of alternatives joined by commas that mean or and finally, or) that all apply to the independent clause Dad encouraged me. Suggested question: “What do all the actions have in common?” (conjunction)
 - I was: “Who?” / Meaning: The author was the one doing the various actions. Suggested questions: “Who was doing the action of the sentence? When were the actions happening? Were they happening all at the same time? How do you know?” (past tense verb)
 - Practice:

“Whether I was _____ or _____, my friend thought _____.”
 - Reconstruct: Reread the sentence. Ask:

“Now what do you think the sentence means?”

“How does your understanding of this sentence add to your understanding of the author’s relationship with her father?”
 - Practice: Consider inviting students to use the sentence to speak or write about their own work or lives. Suggestion: “Whether I am _____ or _____, my parents encourage me with _____.”
- Distribute the Unit 1, Week 1, Day 1: Reading and Speaking Fluency/GUM: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card and the Fluency Self-Assessment Checklist, and briefly discuss each criterion, as needed.
- Invite students to highlight the following focus criteria for this week:
 - “I can read all/almost all of the words correctly.”
 - “I can read groups of related words and phrases together.”

- “I can notice and read punctuation.” (Note: Add “and italics” to the checklist.)
- “I can use the appropriate tone to express the author’s meaning.”
- Choose one or two paragraphs from the excerpt and read it three times, making intentional mistakes on the first two reads. After each read, ask students to review the highlighted criteria on their checklist to determine if that read seemed “fluent” to them. Remind students of the Fluent Readers Do These Things anchor chart from Module 1. (Students in the ▲ group may not have time for this step. Consider prioritizing choral reading, in the subsequent bullet, instead.)
- Invite students to read the excerpt (or a portion of the excerpt) aloud chorally.
- Guide students through self-assessing their fluency on the highlighted criteria on the checklist (placing check marks in the appropriate column) and setting a goal.
 - ▲: Consider posting the following sentence frames:
 - “One of my strengths is _____ because _____.”
 - “My goal is _____. I will achieve it by _____.”
 - If time permits, invite students to tell their goals to a partner.
- Collect Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards and review student responses.
- Prepare students for Day 2’s independent activity using the Unit 1, Week 1: Reading and Speaking Fluency/GUM: Student Task Card.

Instruction for Day 3

- Note: There is no Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card for this lesson. Students mark their fluency passage.
- Remind students of the Fluent Readers Do These Things anchor chart. Review learning targets.
- Invite students to refer to their fluency passage and ask them to skim it and note how many different types of punctuation they can find. They should discuss with a partner how each of these types of punctuation affects the tone of their voice while they read. While students are engaged in this activity, respond to any concerns that may have arisen in groups working independently on other components.
- Ask students to share out the types of punctuation they found and the effect of the punctuation. (There are commas, periods, dashes, quotation marks, periods, exclamation points, semicolons, question marks, and apostrophes.)
- Read the group fluency passage and model how the punctuation (especially commas, periods, and semicolons) adds pauses and changes the tone of voice you might use. Note that this is closely related to the criterion “I can read groups of related words and phrases together.”
 - ▲: Ensure the effect of punctuation is transparent. Ask:
 - “What if we remove the commas, periods, and semicolons in this passage? How does that affect our voice and aid in comprehension?” Tell students you will give them time to think and discuss with their partner. (Punctuation signals a pause and change in tone. It helps the reader understand the separate ideas in the text.)
- ▲: Mini Language Dive: “To this day, / I’m mesmerized by newsreels / of my dad rounding bases, / joyously clapping his hands / as he outfoxes another pitcher.”

- Deconstruct: Invite students to discuss the meaning of the sentence and grapple with the meaning of each chunk. Encourage extended conversation and practice with the focus structure in the highlighted chunk, keeping the following language goals in mind:
 - To: “When?” / Meaning: To tells us a point at the end of a period of time. Suggested questions: “What is another way to say To in this sentence?” (Up until) (preposition)
 - this day: “To when?” / Meaning: this day means right now, today. Suggested questions: “What if we replace this day with today?” (pronoun + noun = noun phrase)
 - To this day: “When is she mesmerized?” / Meaning: To this day is an emphatic, interesting way for the author to say that things that happened in the past continue to affect her. Suggested questions: “Why would the author say that she is still affected by seeing video of her father?” (preposition + noun phrase = prepositional phrase, introductory element)
- Practice:
 - “To this day, I’m mesmerized by _____.” / Ask: “What is another way to say this chunk?” (Even today ...)
- Reconstruct: Reread the sentence. Students can take the roles of Sharon Robinson in the present and Jackie Robinson and the pitcher in the past and act out the sentence.
 - Ask:
 - “What is the author trying to show about how she feels about her father?”
- Practice: Consider inviting students to use the sentence to speak or write about their own work or lives. Suggestion: “To this day, I am _____.” Ask:
 - “Can we say this sentence in a different order? How?”
- Invite students to practice reading their passages aloud with a partner, adding pauses and changing the tone of voice they use according to the punctuation. If time permits, students may practice reading their excerpt with different levels of expression (e.g., as a robot that doesn’t pause or change tone, and then very expressively).
- Prepare students for Day 4’s independent activity using the Unit 1, Week 1: Reading and Speaking Fluency/GUM: Student Task Card. Encourage students to remember their goal from Day 1 (if needed, redistribute Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards). Remind students they will have a chance to assess their progress toward this goal on Day 4.

2. Discuss with a partner, then write. "I am good at ____."

3. Discuss with a partner, then write. "I want to get better at ____ because ____."

Another word or collocation our group discussed: _____.

2. Scavenger Hunt.

Read the statements below. Then hunt for the sentence or phrase that helps you decide if the statement is true or false.

All black people in the United States were enslaved until 1863. True or False	Where did you find the answer? "1776"—it says that there were 55,000 free black people.
The Civil War started because President Lincoln freed the slaves in the Confederate states. True or False	Where did you find the answer?
Because of the 14th Amendment, all laws should apply equally regardless of race. True or False	Where did you find the answer?
When slavery ended, black people in the United States had all the same rights as white people, including the right to vote. True or False	Where did you find the answer?

MORE CHALLENGE:

After the Revolutionary War, all people living in the United States were finally free. True or False	Where did you find the answer?
Because it was illegal to bring in new slaves after 1808, most of the black people in the United States were free and slavery wasn't a major issue. True or False	Where did you find the answer?

- Go in this order:
 - The U.S. Constitution
 - Civil War
 - Emancipation Proclamation
 - Amendments to the Constitution
- When presenting:
 - Paraphrase the pair that went before:

“My classmates basically said _____.”
 - Explain why you chose the symbol you drew.

“We drew this to show ____ because _____.”

- Explain in your own words how this helped make a more equal society.
“This helped make a more equal society because ___ and ___.”
- Paste your card onto one of the steps on the anchor chart.

MORE CHALLENGE:

Using what you know about U.S. history, write in one or more steps on the staircase to equality. For example, when did women get the right to vote?

2. Reflection

- What is the purpose of the timeline on pages 8–9 in Promises to Keep? Why did the author include it in the text?

Day 3

Follow the ALL Independent Group Work protocol to allocate a facilitator and timekeeper.

1. Read your research reading text independently for 5 minutes.
2. Record your reading in the front of your independent reading journal (date, book title, author, pages read).
3. Record any new vocabulary in your vocabulary log. Record academic words at the front and domain-specific vocabulary about the topic at the back.
4. Respond to this prompt in the front of your independent reading journal: "Use the 5 W's to explain what you have learned through research reading today: Who? What? Where? When? Why?"

Day 4

Get into groups of three or four. Follow the ALL Independent Group Work protocol to allocate a facilitator and timekeeper.

1. Timekeeper: Set a 2-minute timer.
2. Group: Think of:
 - One thing you have learned from your research reading text
 - Two new vocabulary words and their meanings that you have learned from your research text
3. Timekeeper: Set a 2-minute timer.
4. Facilitator: You will go first:
 - Pass your research reading text around.
 - Share one thing that you have learned.
 - "I've learned _____. For example, _____."
 - "Something I have learned is _____. For instance, _____."
 - Share two new vocabulary words and their meanings.

Additional Work with Complex Text

Unit 1, Week 1: Teacher Guide

Daily Learning Targets

Day 2

- I can explain key terms from the text. (RI.5.4, L.5.6)

Day 4

- I can understand and use complex English language structures to talk about factors for success. (L.5.1)
- I can understand and use the preposition including to insert and emphasize an example. (L.5.1a)

Teaching Notes

- On Day 2, students review key terms from the text and important concepts from U.S. history in general and African American history in particular.
- On Day 4, all students participate in a Language Dive centered on using a prepositional phrase with including to insert and emphasize an example. This helps students write their informative paragraph in Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice. The sentence structure for the Language Dive was chosen because students may use it when they write their factors for success informative paragraph (see rationale in Language Dive Guide II: Promises to Keep).
- Recall that the Language Dive format has been modified to reflect a more student-centered approach (see Unit 1 Overview).
- This Language Dive sentence explains that the 14th Amendment guarantees citizenship and protection to all people born in the United States; however, many students and their families may have been born outside of the United States. Be aware that this topic may be sensitive for any student, and that some may connect with these issues personally and deeply. The Language Dive Guide includes suggestions to allow time for students to reflect during the Reconstruct stage. Be aware that reflections may be personal, and students are not required to share them. Monitor students and determine if there are issues surfacing that need to be discussed in more detail as a whole group, in smaller groups or independently.
- Differentiation:
 - For Day 2, to provide lighter support, print out a brief encyclopedia entry on each of the key terms and guide students through a jigsaw of the information. To provide heavier support, work with a small group of students on completing their key terms card. To further differentiate cards, assign students who require heavier support to a more familiar term such as the Civil War only.
 - For Day 4, refer to the Language Dive Guide for differentiation. Preview the Language Dive to consider your students' needs and to select the most relevant language goals. Not all students will be able to complete the activity card in the time allotted.

- In advance:

- Consider building your own background information on each of the key terms.
- Preview the Language Dive Guide and consider how to invite conversation among students to address the questions and goals suggested under each sentence strip chunk. Select from the questions and goals provided to best meet your students' needs.
- Review the Questions We Can Ask during a Language Dive (from Unit 1, Lesson 2 module lesson) as necessary.
- Prepare materials for independent student groups.

Materials

Day 2

- ☑ Unit 1, Week 1: Additional Work with Complex Text: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card (one per student)
- ☑ Promises to Keep (from module lesson 1; one per student)
- ☑ Key Terms from the Timeline Card (one per pair)
- ☑ Unit 1, Week 1: Additional Work with Complex Text: Student Task Card (one to display)

Day 4

- ☑ Unit 1, Week 1: Additional Work with Complex Text: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card (one per student)
- ☑ Language Dive Guide II: Promises to Keep (for teacher reference)
- ☑ Language Dive Chunk Chart II: Promises to Keep (for teacher reference)
- ☑ Language Dive Sentence Strip Chunks II: Promises to Keep (one to display)

Instruction for Day 2

- Distribute the Unit 1, Week 1: Additional Work with Complex Text: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card. Review the learning target for this activity.
- Direct students to complete step 1 on the activity card. While students are engaged in this activity, respond to any concerns that may have arisen in groups working independently on other components.
- Using a total participation technique, discuss students' "knows" and "wonders" about the key terms in step 1 from the timeline on pages 8–9 in Promises to Keep.
 - ▲: To provide heavier support, take and display notes of the conversation for students to refer to later when they discuss the key terms.
- If productive, use a Goal 4 Conversation Cue to encourage students to add on to what a classmate said:

Conversation Cue: "Who can add on to what your classmate said? I'll give you time to think."
- Distribute the Key Terms from the Timeline Cards and discuss the information about each key term.
 - ◆: Duplicate and distribute only the blank cards and have students take notes during the conversation to create their own cards.

Additional Language and Literacy Block

- Arrange students into pairs or triads. Tell them they will now capture the information they just discussed about the key terms to help them process, explain, and remember the information. They will add a symbol to each key terms card.
 - ▲: Assign student pairs only one or two key terms.
- Collect Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards to review student work.
- Prepare students for Day 3's independent activity using Unit 1, Week 1: Additional Work with Complex Text: Student Task Card. Note: They will share their key terms cards with their group on Day 3.

Instruction for Day 4

- Distribute the Unit 1, Week 1: Additional Work with Complex Text: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card. Display and discuss learning targets.
- Read the sentence on the top of the activity card. Tell students they will study this sentence carefully. It will help them learn more about the U.S. Constitution. It will also help them learn more about how sentences are put together, and they will learn different phrases they can use in their own writing.
- Instruct students to work with a partner on step 1 of the activity card. While students are engaged in this activity, respond to any concerns that may have arisen in groups working independently on other components.
- Use the Language Dive Guide II: Promises to Keep, Language Dive Chunk Chart II: Promises to Keep, and Language Dive Sentence Strip Chunks II: Promises to Keep to guide students through the Language Dive. Use the student questions generated in step 1 of the activity card to drive instruction. (Example: If students wonder why the author used the word including, start with the third chunk.)
- Collect Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards to review student responses.

In what ways is this sentence important in your life today?

How does this sentence apply to people who are born in other countries and live in the United States?

5. With a partner, use the sentence frame with including to emphasize other people and the Fourteenth Amendment.

The Fourteenth Amendment guarantees all people born in the United States, including _____, citizenship and equal protection under the law.

6. With a partner, use the sentence frames with including to emphasize examples of factors for success for Jackie Robinson.

There are many factors, including _____,

Unit 1, Week 1, Day 2: Key Terms from the Timeline Card

Directions:

On the cards below, explain one of the important terms from the timeline.

1. Review the information on the cards.
2. Draw a symbol to represent the key term. See the example below.

Date: 1868

Key Term: "Equal protection under the law" was a phrase in the 14th Amendment, and it means that the same laws apply to all citizens of the United States.

It happened so that everyone understood that former slaves were not just free, but they were also citizens and the laws should apply to them, too. For example, they could own property and exercise their free speech, and their punishment for breaking a law shouldn't be more severe.

It made society more equal because it meant that laws were applied to everyone in the same way.

Symbol

Date: 1787 Key Term: U.S. Constitution This was a document that set up the government and fundamental laws of the United States. The Constitution includes the Bill of Rights, which explains the basic freedoms (such as freedom of speech, religion, and free press) that all citizens have. It made society more equal because it said that it didn't matter what class or job you had; you had the same basic rights.	Symbol
Dates: 1861–1865 Key Term: The Civil War The Civil War was a war between the Northern states and the Southern states. Although there were many reasons for the war, one was whether or not states had the right to permit slavery. Because the North won, slavery was outlawed in all the states of the United States. This made the country more equal because human beings could no longer treat other human beings like property.	Symbol

Date: 1863 Key Term: Emancipation Proclamation The Emancipation Proclamation was a document signed by President Lincoln that proclaimed that all slaves in states that rebelled against the United States were free. This made society more equal because it helped start the process of abolishing slavery in the United States. Not until the 13th Amendment was slavery completely illegal in the United States.	Symbol
---	----------------------

Dates: 1865–1870 Key Term: Amendments to the Constitution The Bill of Rights originally included 10 rights. However, the framers of the U.S. Constitution realized that new rights may need to be added from time to time. So they said that the government could add, or amend, the rights in the Bill of Rights. So far, 17 amendments have been added to the original Bill of Rights. Many of the amendments have led to a more equal society. For example, the 15th and 19th Amendments said that all citizens, regardless of race or sex, could vote. The 13th Amendment outlawed slavery.	Symbol

Unit 1, Week 1, Day 4: Language Dive Guide II: Promises to Keep

Notes	Refer to the Language Dive in Module 3, Unit 1, Lesson 2, for detailed notes on how the Language Dive format has been modified starting in Module 3.
Sentence	The Fourteenth Amendment guarantees all people born in the United States, including African Americans, citizenship and equal protection under the law. (from page 9 of Promises to Keep by Sharon Robinson)
Rationale	This sentence is compelling because it uses the prepositional phrase including African Americans to insert and emphasize an example, which helps address the Daily Learning Target and L.5.1a and RI.5.4. It connects to the guiding question of what factors contribute to an individual’s success in changing society by showing one way individuals are shaped by society. Invite students to discuss each chunk briefly, but encourage extended conversation and practice with the highlighted focus structure including African Americans . Based on student need and time, consider adding days for extended conversation and practice with the subsequent sentence Native Americans are not included . After discussing this structure, students practice using it to emphasize an example of other people who are guaranteed rights by the 14th Amendment. Students can apply their understanding of the meaning and structure of this sentence when speaking and writing about an individual’s success in changing society and explaining factors for success in Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice and the Unit 1 module lessons.
Time	15 minutes
Throughout the Language Dive	Follow the same routines found in Module 3, Unit 1, Lesson 2.
Deconstruct	Refer to the chunk chart for language goals; display the sentence strip chunks ; display and distribute the Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card .  - After each read, each person in the group gives a “star”—something he or she liked about the reading fluency. For help, use these examples:
 - “I liked how you paused. It made the next phrase very clear.”
 - “I liked how you read the quotation marks. I could tell it was someone else talking.”
 - “I liked how your voice ____.”
 - “It was great that you corrected yourself when you read ____.”
 - “I noticed that you ____.”
4. Using a green colored pencil, self-assess where you are with each of the criteria on your checklist by placing a check mark in the appropriate column.

MORE CHALLENGE:

Share your self-assessment with an elbow partner and explain how you have improved your reading fluency this week.

Writing Practice

Unit 1, Week 2: Teacher Guide

Daily Learning Target

Days 1 and 3

- I can write a paragraph (or essay) explaining how historical context or his personal qualities led to Jackie Robinson's success, using specific information in the text. (RI.5.3, W.5.2)

Teaching Notes

- In this component, students write an informative paragraph explaining how historical context or personal qualities affected Jackie Robinson's success in breaking the color barrier in baseball. This task enables students to practice using the word including to add an example or give emphasis from the Language Dive from Unit 1, Week 1, Day 4: Additional Work with Complex Text.
- Over the course of the component, each student works at his or her own pace. Some students may write more than one informative paragraph. Encourage students to work as fluently and as productively as they can.
- On Day 1, students note how the parts of a well-written paragraph mirror the parts of a well-written essay and create a writing plan. Note: This lesson assumes students have already added to the factor for success anchor charts in Lesson 7 of the module lessons.
- On Day 3, students continue to write their informative paragraphs. They begin the lesson by reading and annotating a student exemplar from module Lesson 6 and discussing introductory and concluding sentences. Consider focusing on different criteria from the Informative Writing Checklist if that would better serve your students.
- Differentiation:
 - On Day 1: To provide heavier support, give students a graphic organizer to organize their paragraph into three parts—opening, details from the text, and concluding statement. Consider inviting students to begin by focusing only on their introduction and conclusion. Consider providing all students with the Factors for Success Quotes handout so details from the anchor charts are readily available. Consider sharing a student exemplar from module Lesson 6 (students will read an exemplar on Day 3). For students needing more challenge, they may write a four-paragraph essay on both factors for success.
 - On Day 3: Students will need different levels of support. Some students may not have finished their informative paragraphs from Day 2. Some students may need help with linking details and facts to explain their focus. Consider posting additional sentence frames for introductory and concluding sentences. Consider working with a small group of students who need heavier support. To provide lighter support, allow students to exchange pieces and color-code each other's writing.

■ In advance:

- Day 3: Prepare a student exemplar from module Lesson 6. If a student exemplar isn't available, use the Support from Decision Makers Paragraph (example, for teacher reference).
- Prepare materials for independent student groups.

Materials

Day 1

- ✓ Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card (one per student)
- ✓ Factor for Success: Historical Context anchor chart (begun in module Lesson 4)
- ✓ Factor for Success: Personal Qualities anchor chart (begun in module Lesson 5)
- ✓ Factors for Success Quotes (optional; for students needing additional support)
- ✓ Lined paper (one per student; for students to create their writing plan)
- ✓ Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice: Student Task Card (one for display)

Day 3

- ✓ Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card (one per student)
- ✓ Student exemplar (from module Lesson 6; one per student)
- ✓ Colored pencils (optional; used by students to annotate writing)
- ✓ Factors for success informative paragraph (begun on Day 2; one per student)
- ✓ Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice: Student Task Card (one for display)

Instruction for Day 1

- Distribute the Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards. Review the learning target. Point out that this week students will write an informative paragraph focused on the module guiding question:
 - “What factors contribute to an individual’s success in changing society?”
- Instruct students to complete step 1 on the activity card. While students are engaged in this activity, respond to any concerns that may have arisen in groups working independently on other components.
 - ▲: Post a simple sentence frame for partner discussion, such as: “While these two charts both _____, the major difference is _____.”
- Invite pairs to explain the similarities and differences that they noticed between a paragraph and an essay. Consider displaying the charts in step 1 and highlighting the differences as students explain.
- If productive, use a Goal 4 Conversation Cue to encourage students to add on to what a classmate said:
 - Conversation Cue: “Who can add on to what your classmate said? I’ll give you time to think.”
- After a few minutes, invite students to choose a prompt and to reread either the Factor for Success: Historical Context anchor chart or the Factor for Success: Personal Qualities anchor chart.
 - ▲ ■: Distribute the Factors for Success Quotes to students who may find them helpful.

- Tell students to create a pre-writing plan on the piece of lined paper. If productive, allow students to stop and discuss with their partner as they are planning their paragraphs.
 - ▲■●: Consider pairing students who need heavier support with a more advanced-level student to discuss and complete a pre-writing plan (and/or write the informative paragraph) together. Circulate to provide support.
 - ◆●: Encourage students to plan a full essay instead of a paragraph.
- If time permits, invite students to complete the More Challenge. To provide heavier support, model this process by thinking aloud through a paragraph for the group first.
- If time permits, invite a student to talk through his or her paragraph as a model for the rest of the group, pointing to his or her writing plan while talking.
- Collect Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards.
- Give students specific, positive feedback on their pre-writing thinking. Prepare them for the next day's independent activity: Display the Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice: Student Task Card and walk through the Day 2 task.

Instruction for Day 3

- Distribute Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards and review the learning target.
- Distribute the student exemplar and colored pencils and instruct students to complete step 1 with a partner. While students are engaged in this activity, respond to any concerns that may have arisen in groups working independently on other components.
 - ▲: Post a simple sentence frame for discussion, such as: "In this sentence, the author is giving the _____. I think this because _____. Do you agree?"
- Ask for a volunteer to share the parts of an informative paragraph she or he identified in step 1. Using a total participation technique, guide students in a discussion of what makes an effective informative paragraph, including introductory and concluding sentences.
- If productive, cue students to add on to what a classmate said:
 - Conversation Cue: "Who can add on to what your classmate said? I'll give you time to think."
- Invite students to retrieve their factors for success informative paragraph and complete step 2 and/or step 3. Assure students they will get a chance to revise their paragraphs if they want.
- Collect Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards.
- Prepare students for the next day's independent activity: Walk through the Unit 1, Week 2: Writing Practice: Student Task Card task for Day 4. Point out that they may revise their informative paragraphs or, if they have already written a strong paragraph, they may write on a new prompt. Express your confidence that they will be able to write continuously and silently on Day 4. Brainstorm focusing strategies as needed.
 - ◆: Encourage students to complete their informative essay on the prompt.
- Remind students of their learning about the preposition including in Unit 1, Week 1: Additional Work with Complex Text. Encourage students to insert an example or add a word for emphasis by using the word including when they write tomorrow. Review as needed.

Day 1

Your teacher will lead you through the activities on this card.

This week, you will write an informative paragraph (or essay) about the module guiding question:

- "What factors can contribute to an individual's success in changing society?"

1. Study the following charts. Discuss with a partner:

What are the differences and similarities between an informative essay and an informative paragraph?

Informative Essay	Informative Paragraph
Introduction: Introduces the topic, gives context or background, and includes focus statement. Proof Paragraphs: Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples to explain the focus. Information is grouped logically. Concluding paragraph: Clearly related to topic, restates focus statement, and answers "so what?"	Introductory sentences: Introduce the topic, give context, and include the focus statement. Relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples to explain the focus. Concluding sentence: Restates focus statement and answers "so what?"

Prompt 1:

How did Jackie Robinson's personal qualities lead to his success in breaking the color barrier in baseball? What, in the text, makes you think so?

OR

Prompt 2:

How did the historical context in which Jackie Robinson lived lead to his success in breaking the color barrier in baseball? What, in the text, makes you think so?

2. Choose one prompt and reread the appropriate factor for success chart.

- 3. Use the piece of paper to plan your writing. Note how you will introduce your topic, including what context you will give. Note the details you will use and how these details illustrate a factor for success. Note the concluding sentence or idea you want to include.

If you have time, write your focus statement in a complete sentence.

MORE CHALLENGE:

Discuss your plan with a partner. Talk through your paragraph.

Use the paragraph frame if needed:

"Changing society _____. Jackie Robinson was _____. One factor in Jackie's success was _____. For example, _____. This clearly shows _____. This led to _____. Another example of _____ is _____. Because of this, _____. Without this, _____."

Day 3

Your teacher will guide you through the activities on this card.

Today, you will focus on these criteria from the Informative Writing Checklist:

W.5.2a	I introduce the topic, giving readers the context they need to understand the piece.
W.5.2e	I have a conclusion that is clearly related to the focus and the information presented.

1. Read the student exemplar informative paragraph. With a partner, discuss and annotate the paragraph using colored pencils.
 - Underline in red the sentence where the author introduces the topic and gives context.
 - Underline in green the focus statement of the paragraph (where the author names the factor).
 - Underline in yellow the sentences where the author gives the supporting details from the text.
 - Underline in green the sentences where the author concludes the paragraph and restates the focus.

Prompt 1:

How did Jackie Robinson's personal qualities lead to his success in breaking the color barrier in baseball? What, in the text, makes you think so?

OR

Prompt 2:

How did the historical context in which Jackie Robinson lived lead to his success in breaking the color barrier in baseball? What, in the text, makes you think so?

2. Finish your informative paragraph if you have not done so yet.
3. If you have finished writing, reread your informative paragraph and color-code it using colored pencils:
 - Underline in red the sentence where you introduced the topic.
 - Underline in green the focus statement of the paragraph (where you named the factor).
 - Underline in yellow the sentences where you gave the supporting details from the text.
 - Underline in green the sentences where you concluded the paragraph and restated the focus.
 - If you can't find all these parts of your piece, revise your informative paragraph to include them.

MORE CHALLENGE:

Revise your informative paragraph OR write a new informative paragraph on the other prompt. Use a new piece of lined paper.

Day 1:

- I can practice using words with a new suffix. (L.5.4b)

Day 3:

- I can use an academic vocabulary word in context. (L.5.6)

Student Materials

Day 1:

- Scissors (one per group)
- Who Has...? word cards (one per group)

Day 3:

- Unit 1, Week 2: Word Study and Vocabulary: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card

Directions:

Day 1

Follow the ALL Independent Group Work protocol to complete the task.

1. Prepare

- Facilitator: Cut up the Round I 'Who Has...?' word cards.
- Facilitator: Distribute the Round I word cards to each person in the group (some people may have more than one word).

2. Play the game

ROUND I

- Timekeeper: Set the timer for 2 minutes.
- The person who has the word unacceptable begins. Whoever has the word that answers the question on the card ("*Who has a word that means able to be desired?") reads his or her card next.

- Once you have read your card, place it face down on the table.
- MORE CHALLENGE: In addition to reading the card, each person gives an example of his or her word. (Example: It is unacceptable to be late to school.) Work as a group to clarify the meaning of the words if needed.
- Keep reading cards until everyone has read his or her card(s). See if your group can get all the cards read in less than 2 minutes.
- Exchange cards with a partner and play again.
- If your group is ready, move on to Round II.

ROUND II

- Facilitator: Cut up the Round II word cards.
- Facilitator: Distribute all the Round I and Round II word cards. (Everyone in the group will have more than one card.)
- Timekeeper: Set the timer for 3 minutes.
- The person who has the word unacceptable begins. Play the same way you played Round I.
- Keep reading cards until everyone has read all of his or her cards. See if your group can get all the cards read in less than 3 minutes.
- If time permits, play again. Try to beat your time!

3. Discuss with your group:

- What suffixes did you notice today?
- These suffixes mean the same thing and create the same part of speech. What do you think the meaning is? What do you think the part of speech is?

MORE CHALLENGE:

Write any of the words from today in a sentence:

OR

Think of your own words that have the same suffixes from today. (Hint: Add prefixes to some of the words from today.) Write the words below:

Day 3

Follow the ALL Independent Group Work protocol to complete the task.

1. Read your Unit 1, Week 2: Word Study and Vocabulary: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card to remember the word you studied on Day 2. Say the word aloud three times.
2. Find a partner and discuss what the word means.
3. Underline the sentence that uses the word INCORRECTLY (not correctly):
 - a. She considers picking your nose in class very unacceptable behavior.
 - b. "I'm so impressed by your unacceptable behavior!" he said happily.
 - c. Unfortunately, I cannot say yes to your offer. It is unacceptable to me.
4. Say two sentences using the word with a partner. You can use these sentence frames if needed:
 - "It is unacceptable to _____."
 - "The _____ is completely unacceptable."
5. Write two sentences using the word (for help, use the sentence frames from step 4):

MORE CHALLENGE:

If you have time, write more sentences using other -able or -ible words below. (See the Vocabulary Tree for ideas.)

 - "Can you say more about _____?"
 - "Can you give an example of _____?"
5. Repeat with each person in the group.

Word Study and Vocabulary

Unit 1, Week 2: Teacher Guide

Daily Learning Targets

Day 2

- I can use a Vocabulary Tree to analyze the meaning of an academic vocabulary word with the suffix -able or -ible. (RF.5.3a, L.5.4b)

Day 4

- I can use a Vocabulary Tree to analyze the meaning of an academic vocabulary with the suffix -ment. (RF.5.3a, L.5.4b)

Teaching Notes

- On Day 2, students focus on an academic vocabulary word (unacceptable) with the suffix -able or -ible. On Day 4, students focus on an academic vocabulary word (resentment) with the suffix -ment. They analyze both words using Vocabulary Trees to gain a deeper understanding of the meaning of the word and how to use it.
- Differentiation: To provide heavier support, pre-fill in more information on the Vocabulary Tree. To provide more challenge, ask students to write more original sentences and list more related words. For additional language support for ELLs, use the Mini Language Dive.
- In advance:
 - Prepare independent student materials.

Materials

Day 2 and Day 4

- Unit 1, Week 2: Word Study and Vocabulary: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Card (one per student)
- Chart paper (one piece; used by the teacher to write a definition)
- Affix List (from Module 1)
- Unit 1, Week 2: Word Study and Vocabulary: Student Task Card (one to display)

Instruction for Day 2

- Distribute the Unit 1, Week 2: Word Study and Vocabulary: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards. Review learning targets.
- Focus students on the sentence, break the word into syllables, and discuss and chart the meaning of the word on chart paper.
- Invite students to break down the word into the root and the affixes using their Affix List. Note: If the affix that students work with in this lesson is not on their Affix List, help students add the affix and its meaning to their list. While students are engaged in this activity, respond to any concerns that may have arisen in groups working independently on other components.

- Review the chart on the activity card. Because this is a suffix, ensure that students understand the meaning of the prefix (un- means not). They should also recognize that adding -able or -ible to a verb creates an adjective.
- ▲: Mini Language Dive.
 - “But the new freedoms granted to African Americans / were unacceptable to many southern whites / who were used to being in control.”
 - Deconstruct: Invite students to discuss the meaning of the sentence and grapple with the meaning of each chunk. Encourage extended conversation and practice with the focus structure in the highlighted chunk, keeping the following language goals in mind:
 - who were used to: “Who did what?” / Meaning: Southern whites only felt comfortable with and needed a certain thing. Suggested questions: “To whom does who refer in this chunk? How do you know? What does used to mean?” (pronoun + past passive verb = adjective clause)
 - being in control: “Were used to what?” / Meaning: Southern whites were used to making the rules and didn’t give African Americans freedoms. Suggested questions: “What does being in control mean? Why would it be unacceptable to Southern whites to not be in control?” (gerund + in control=noun phrase)
 - Practice:

“I am used to being _____.” “They were used to being _____.”
 - Reconstruct: Reread the sentence. Ask:

“Now what do you think the sentence means?”

“How does your understanding of this sentence add to your understanding of the word unacceptable?”
 - Practice: Consider inviting students to use the sentence to speak or write about their own work or lives. Suggestion: “_____ is unacceptable to me because I am used to _____.”
- Guide students through completing the Vocabulary Tree. Each branch of the tree should be filled out. For “My own sentence with related word” students may write their own sentence or find an additional sentence from the text or another source. Invite students to practice using the word aloud in a sentence several times before they write their own sentence.
 - ▲: Model how to write a pronunciation for the word. Invite students who speak a common home language to discuss the translation. Invite students to use a collocation to form their original sentence.
 - : Post a simple sentence starter for students to use when writing their original sentence.
 - ◆: Invite students to write several sentences.
- Prepare students for Day 3’s independent activity using the Unit 1, Week 2: Word Study and Vocabulary: Student Task Card. (Note: Students will use Unit 1, Week 2: Word Study and Vocabulary: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards on Day 3.)

Instruction for Day 4

- Distribute the Unit 1, Week 2: Word Study and Vocabulary: Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards. Review learning targets.

- Follow the same routine as Day 2.
 - Focus students on the sentence, break the word into syllables, and discuss and chart the meaning of the word on chart paper.
 - Invite students to break down the word into the root and the affixes using their Affix List. Note: If the affix that students work with in this lesson is not on their Affix List, help students add the affix and its meaning to their list. While students are engaged in this activity, respond to any concerns that may have arisen in groups working independently on other components.
 - Review the chart on the activity card. Because this is a suffix, ensure that students understand the meaning of the root and prefix of the word.
- ▲: Mini Language Dive.
 - “The rapid shift in population / caused overcrowding in many cities / and increased resentment from many white workers / who were now forced to work alongside blacks.”
 - Deconstruct: Invite students to discuss the meaning of the sentence and grapple with the meaning of each chunk. Encourage extended conversation and practice with the focus structure in the highlighted chunk, keeping the following language goals in mind:
 - who were now forced: “Who did what?” / Meaning: The new laws made white workers feel like they had to do something they didn’t want to do. Suggested questions: “To whom does who refer in this chunk? How do you know? What’s another word for forced? Who or what forced white workers?” (pronoun + past passive verb phrase = adjective clause)
 - to work alongside blacks: “Forced to do what?” / Meaning: The workers were living in crowded cities and were forced to work with black workers. Suggested questions: “What were the white workers forced to do? Why would it increase resentment from the white workers? What if we replace alongside with with? How does the meaning of the chunk change?” (infinitive + preposition + noun = noun phrase)
 - Practice:

“I like playing _____ with my friend who _____.”
 - Reconstruct: Reread the sentence. Ask:

“Now what do you think the sentence means?”

“How does your understanding of this sentence add to your understanding of the word resentment?”
 - Practice: Consider inviting students to use the sentence frame to restate the sentence from Day 1. Suggestion: “The _____ caused resentment from _____ who _____.”
- Guide students through the remaining steps on the activity card. Because the Vocabulary Tree is a new strategy, support students as needed. See Day 2 instruction.
 - ◆: As time permits, practice making words by adding -ment to verbs (e.g., to enjoy becomes enjoyment; to achieve becomes achievement).
- Collect the Teacher-Guided Student Activity Cards to review student work and to determine common issues to use as whole group teaching points.
