Teaching Notes

Purpose of lesson and alignment to standards:

- Work Times A and B and the Closing contain repeated routines from Lessons 1–4. Refer to those lessons for more detail, as necessary.
- In this lesson, students continue to focus on working to become ethical people and working to become effective learners by collaborating as they work in pairs and showing respect as they reflect on the play.

How it builds on previous work:

- Similar to Lessons 2–4, students read a new scene, determine the gist and the meaning of unfamiliar Vocabulary, analyze character reactions, and write a character analysis paragraph with a partner. They continue these routines in this lesson in preparation for the Mid-Unit 2 Assessment in the next lesson.

Areas in which students may need additional support:

- Students may need additional support rereading the text to find the gist. Continue to pair students strategically or place them in a teacher-led group for additional support.
- Note that sentence frames are not provided for all students to use when writing in this module. Refer back to the writing lessons in Module 1 if students need this additional support.

Assessment guidance:

- Read students' paragraphs to identify common issues to use as teaching points for the whole group before the mid-unit assessment. Ensure that students use details from the text to support their ideas.
- Consider using the Reading: Foundational Skills Informal Assessment: Phonics and Word Recognition Checklist (Grade 4) or the Reading: Foundational Skills Informal Assessment: Reading Fluency Checklist to assess students' during Work Time A (see Module 1 Appendix).

- Consider using the Writing: Writing Informal Assessment: Observational Checklist for Writing and Language Skills to assess students' writing abilities in Closing and Assessment A (see Module 1 Appendix).
- Collect the Character Analysis Paragraph: Act II, Scene 1—Mary homework from Lesson 4. Refer to Character Analysis Paragraph: Act II, Scene 1—Mary (example, for teacher reference) as necessary.
- Collect the For ELLs: Language Dive Practice: Excerpt of the Declaration of Independence, Part I homework from Lesson 5. See For ELLs: Language Dive Practice: Excerpt of the Declaration of Independence, Part I (example, for teacher reference) in the supporting Materials.

Down the road:

- In the next lesson, students will repeat the reading routines in this lesson with the next scene of Divided Loyalties for the mid-unit assessment.

In advance:

- Strategically pair students for finding the gist, with at least one strong reader per pair.
- Post: Learning targets and applicable anchor charts (see Materials list).

Technology & Multimedia

- Continue to use the technology tools recommended throughout Modules 1–2 to create anchor charts to share with families, to record students as they participate in discussions and protocols to review with students later and to share with families, and for students to listen to and annotate text, record ideas on note-catchers, and word-process writing.

Supporting English Language Learners

Supports guided in part by CA ELD Standards 4.I.B.6, 4.I.B.7, 4.I.B.8, 4.I.C.10, 4.I.C.11

Important points in the lesson itself

- The basic design of this lesson supports ELLs by following the same routines from previous lessons for determining gist and the meaning of unfamiliar Vocabulary, as well as for analyzing a character and writing a character analysis paragraph. The opportunity for students to work in pairs to use their note-catchers before writing a paragraph independently is also supportive of ELLs.
- ELLs may find it challenging to determine the most relevant details and examples from the text to focus on during the character analysis in Work Time B. Consider highlighting key phrases for students to focus on and stopping during the reading to ask students how these phrases portray each character's thoughts and feelings. For example, highlight "I want to be a Patriot as much as you do” on page 31 to show that Abigail feels keen to be useful. See levels of support, below, and the Meeting Students’ Needs column for specific suggestions.

Levels of support

For lighter support:

- Challenge students to use varying coordinating and subordinating conjunctions to expand their sentences as they practice new feeling Vocabulary in context during Work Time B. Provide sentence frames for support. Examples: When I feel (adjective), I (reaction.) I (reaction) because I feel (adjective.)
- In Work Time A, encourage students to identify synonyms on the Feelings/Reactions T-chart and to use words that are less familiar to them as they analyze their characters and write their character analysis paragraph. This will expand their Vocabulary and support them in their language development.

For heavier support:

- During Work Time B, distribute a partially filled-in copy of the Character Analysis note-catcher. This provides students with models of the kind of information they should enter and reduces the volume of writing required.

Universal Design for Learning

- Multiple Means of Representation (MMR): In this lesson, students listen to a read-aloud of Act II, Scene 2 of Divided Loyalties. Similar to Lessons 2–4, continue to activate prior student knowledge and review scenes as needed.
- Multiple Means of Action and Expression (MMAE): This lesson offers several opportunities for students to engage in discussion with partners. Continue to provide sentence frames to help them organize their thoughts and benefit from peer interaction.
- Multiple Means of Engagement (MME): Recall that sustained engagement and effort is essential for student achievement in this unit. Continue to remind students of learning goals and their value or relevance.

Opening

A. Reviewing Learning Targets (5 minutes)

- Move students into pairs and invite them to label themselves partner A and partner B.
- Direct students' attention to the posted learning targets and select a volunteer to read them aloud:
  - “I can determine the gist and the meaning of unfamiliar words and phrases in Act II, Scene 2 of Divided Loyalties.”
  - “I can describe a character using details from the text in Act II, Scene 2 of Divided Loyalties.”
- Remind students of the meaning of the words act and scene and that they have seen all of these learning targets in the previous lessons for earlier acts and scenes in Divided Loyalties.

Meeting Students' Needs

- For ELLs and students who may need additional support with comprehension and engagement: (Working toward Same Learning Target) Invite students to share one way they worked toward these learning targets in previous lessons. (MMR, MME)
- For ELLs: (Sharing Strategies) Invite students to share one strategy that supported them specifically in determining the meaning of unfamiliar words and phrases from the excerpt of the Declaration of Independence, Part I.

Work Time

A. Reading Aloud and Determining the Gist: Divided Loyalties, Act II, Scene 2 (25 minutes)

- Distribute and display the Character Analysis Note-catcher: Act II, Scene 2.

- Invite students to retrieve their copies of Divided Loyalties and guide them through the same reading routine from Work Time B of Lesson 1 to read, reflect, find the gist, and determine the meaning of unfamiliar Vocabulary in this scene. Refer to the Character Analysis Note-catcher: Act II, Scene 2 (example, for teacher reference) as necessary and remind students to use the following:
  - Working to Become Ethical People anchor chart
  - Vocabulary log
  - Close Readers Do These Things anchor chart
  - Working to Become Effective Learners anchor chart

Meeting Students' Needs

- For ELLs and students who may need additional support determining the gist: (Key Phrases) Consider highlighting or underlining key phrases in their individual copy of "Divided Loyalties Act II, Scene 2" in advance. This will lift the gist up for them as they read along. (MMR)
- For students who may need additional support with fine motor skills: Offer choice with the note-catcher by providing a template that includes lines within the boxes. (MMR, MME)
- For ELLs: (Character Chart: Activating Prior Knowledge) Invite students to reference the Character Chart to share something they have learned about each character, including their feelings and reactions, before reading Act II, Scene 2.
- For ELLs: (Questions to Support Gist) Consider asking students specific questions to support them in determining the gist.

B. Analyzing Character Reactions: Divided Loyalties, Act II, Scene 2 (20 minutes)

- Guide students through the same character analysis routine from Work Time B of Lesson 2 to analyze William's thoughts, feelings, and actions about the Sons of Liberty meeting and the Patriot cause and to work in pairs to analyze Abigail's thoughts, feelings, and reactions to the same event. Refer to Character Analysis Note-catcher: Act II, Scene 2 (example, for teacher reference) as necessary.

Meeting Students' Needs

- When using a total participation technique, minimize discomfort or perceived threats and distractions by alerting individual students that you are going to call on them next. (MME)
- For students who may need additional support with oral language and processing: Allow ample wait time as students respond during the discussion. (MMAE, MME) determined, eager, enthusiastic, keen) Invite students to practice using each word in a familiar context.
- For ELLs: (Feelings/Reactions T-chart: Adding Examples) Add new feeling Vocabulary from the scene just read to the Feelings/Reactions T-chart. (Examples:

- For ELLs: (Character Chart: Recording Responses) As students share what they recorded on their note-catchers, choose one example each of William's and Abigail's thoughts/feelings and reactions to record on the Character Chart. Review examples from previous lessons to reinforce comprehension of the many ways characters' reactions have signaled their feelings throughout the play so far.

Closing and Assessment

A. Pair Writing: William in Divided Loyalties, Act II, Scene 2 (10 minutes)

- Distribute paper and guide students through the same partner character analysis paragraph writing routine from the Closing of Lesson 3 to write a paragraph about William in this scene. Refer to the Character Analysis Paragraph: Act II, Scene 2—William (example, for teacher reference) as necessary.
  - Remind students to each write their own paragraph and refer them to their Writing Complete Sentences handout and Marking Direct Quotes handout as needed.
  - Use a checking for understanding technique (e.g., Red Light, Green Light or Thumb-O-Meter) for students to self-assess against the second learning target and against how well they collaborated.
- Collect the Character Analysis Paragraph: Act II, Scene 1—Mary homework from Lesson 4. Refer to Character Analysis Paragraph: Act II, Scene 1—Mary (example, for teacher reference) as necessary.
- Collect For ELLs: Language Dive Practice: Excerpt of the Declaration of Independence, Part I homework from Lesson 5. See For ELLs: Language Dive Practice: Excerpt of the Declaration of Independence, Part I (example, for teacher reference) in the supporting Materials.

Meeting Students' Needs

- For students who may need additional support with sustained motivation and effort: Provide mastery-oriented feedback that is frequent, timely, and specific. (Example: "I can see that you mention what William is thinking. Can you add a sentence that tells how we know this from what we read?") (MME)
- For ELLs: (Displaying Questions) Display the questions to guide students' thinking for students to reference as they write the character analysis paragraph for William.
- For ELLs: (One Sentence at a Time) Encourage students to focus on one sentence at a time as they write their character analysis paragraph. Additionally, encourage them to orally process each sentence with their partner before writing it down.
- For ELLs: (Expanding Sentences) Challenge students to use varying coordinating and subordinating conjunctions to expand their sentences as they write.

Homework

A. Use your Character Analysis Note-catcher: Act II, Scene 2 to write a character analysis paragraph for Abigail in this scene.

B. Accountable Research Reading. Select a prompt and respond in the front of your independent reading journal.

Meeting Students' Needs

- For ELLs and students who may need additional support with writing: (Oral Response) Students may benefit from discussing and responding to their prompt orally, either with a partner or family member or by recording their response. (MMAE)
- For students who may need additional support with reading: Support students in selecting a prompt to respond to, rephrasing the prompt, and thinking aloud possible responses. (MMR)
